

BLOOMFIELD STATE BANK

Privacy Disclosure Notice

At Bloomfield State Bank, we place a high priority on ensuring the privacy and security of data pertaining to our customers and consumers, including those who visit our web site and e-banking system.

Bloomfield State Bank is aware that as customers, you have entrusted us with your financial information and accounts, and also have shared personal information with us. We respect your right to confidentiality and take every possible measure to ensure that your personal information remains personal. In short, we work hard to earn your confidence and preserve your trust.

This Privacy Disclosure is being issued to comply with the provisions of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act governing the privacy of consumer financial information.

Our Privacy Policy

We do not share nonpublic personal information except as required by law and we will continue to protect your privacy in the future.

Categories of Information That We May Collect

We collect nonpublic personal information about you from the following sources:

- ❖ Information we receive from you on applications or other forms such as: your name, address, social security number, assets, and income.
- ❖ Information about your transactions with us such as: your account balance, payment history, parties to transactions and debit card usage.
- ❖ Information we receive from a consumer-reporting agency, such as: your creditworthiness and credit history.

Categories of Information That We Disclose

We do not disclose any nonpublic personal information about our customers or former customers to anyone, except as required by law.

Disclosure As Permitted By Law

We may disclose information as needed to service providers such as check printing companies and consumer credit reporting agencies.

Confidentiality and Security

We restrict access to nonpublic personal information about you to those employees who need to know that information to provide products or services to you. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal standards to guard your non-public personal information.
